CONCESSION TO THE TEMPORARY SKILLED MIGRATION INCOME THRESHOLD (TSMIT) / CORE SKILLS INCOME THRESHOLD (CSIT)

In relation to the nomination of occupations for SID, SESR and ENS visas, the Designated Area Representative acknowledges that the following additional requirements must be met by a Third Party. These requirements will be included in the Labour Agreements associated with this Agreement. Individual Labour Agreements will specify which Occupations are concessional occupations (if any) and which TSMIT/CSIT concessions (if any) will apply for a Third Party who enters into a Labour Agreement.

- 'Non-concessional occupation' means an occupation that may be nominated under this Agreement but is not specified in Table 5.
- Concessional occupation' means an occupation specified in Table 5.

For both concessional and non-concessional occupations:

- 'Annual Market Salary Rate' has the same meaning as in regulation 1.03 of the Migration Regulations: the earnings an Australian citizen or an Australian permanent resident earns or would earn for performing equivalent work on a full-time basis for a year in the same workplace at the same location, and is determined in accordance with the instrument which specifies the method for determining the Annual Market Salary Rate for an occupation nominated under section 140GB of the Migration Act or an occupation in relation to which a position is nominated under regulation 5.19 of the Migration Regulations.
- 'Annual Earnings' means an Overseas Worker's Earnings calculated on an annual basis.

Non-concessional occupations

'Earnings' has the same meaning as in the regulation 1.03 of the Migration Regulations, which provides that earnings has a meaning affected by regulation 2.57A of the Migration Regulations.

In relation to an Overseas Worker who is nominated for a non-concessional occupation in relation to a SID visa, the nominating Third Party must meet the legislative requirements relating to CSIT, Annual Market Salary Rate and Annual Earnings which would apply if the Overseas Worker were nominated in relation to the Core Skills stream or Specialist Skills stream in the standard SID visa program.

In relation to an Overseas Worker who is identified for a non-concessional occupation in relation to a SESR visa, the nominating Third Party must meet the same legislative requirements relating to TSMIT, Annual Market Salary Rate and Annual Earnings which would apply if the Overseas Worker were identified in relation to the employer sponsored stream of the standard SESR visa program.

In relation to an Overseas Worker who is identified for a non-concessional occupation in relation to an ENS visa, the nominating Third Party must meet the legislative requirements relating to CSIT, Annual Market Salary Rate and Annual Earnings which would apply if the Overseas Worker were identified in relation to the Temporary Residence Transition stream or the Direct Entry stream in the standard ENS visa program.

Concessional occupations

In relation to an Overseas Worker who is nominated/identified for a concessional occupation in relation to a SID, SESR or ENS visa, in accordance with the applicable concession type set out below, the nominating Third Party must provide the Overseas Worker with an amount of Annual Earnings which is equal to or greater than:

- the Annual Market Salary Rate, and
- Reduced TSMIT/CSIT (for TSMIT/CSIT concession type 1) or TSMIT/CSIT (for TSMIT/CSIT concession type 2).

'Reduced TSMIT/CSIT' means 90% of TSMIT/CSIT.

The Designated Area Representative will specify in the attachment to their endorsement letter, the TSMIT/CSIT Concession type applicable to each endorsed concessional Occupation, as supported by a Third Party's evidence-based case for the concession to apply.

TSMIT/CSIT Concession types

Employers may seek endorsement from the Designated Area Representative for the following concession to apply to a concessional Occupation.

	Type 1	Type 2
Monetary Earnings	At least Reduced TSMIT/CSIT	At least Reduced TSMIT/CSIT
Non-monetary earnings (Food and Board)		No more than 10% of TSMIT/CSIT
Total Annual Earnings	At least Reduced TSMIT/CSIT	At least TSMIT/CSIT

Type 1: Reduced TSMIT/CSIT, and Earnings to include Guaranteed Overtime

'Reduced TSMIT/CSIT' applies.

'Earnings' has the same meaning as in the regulation 1.03 of the Migration Regulations, which provides that earnings has a meaning affected by regulation 2.57A of the Migration Regulations, except that it also includes guaranteed overtime where:

- The guaranteed overtime is consistent with standard industry practice within the sector;
- There are equivalent Australians performing equivalent work in the Third Party's workplace at the same location and whose arrangements have been guaranteed in an industrial arrangement for those workers; and
- At the time of nomination the Third Party provides evidence that the hours are guaranteed within the employment contract for the Overseas Worker, and confirms the hours are consistent with the National Employment Standards; and
- Application of the concession is subject to the Earnings being in line with applicable Industrial Awards or Enterprise Agreements and not below levels for Australian employees in comparable roles.

Type 2: TSMIT/CSIT, and Earnings to include Guaranteed Overtime and Non-Monetary and Monetary Benefits

The Annual Earnings must be equal to or greater than TSMIT/CSIT, and the Annual Earnings may include monetary and non-monetary benefits.

'Earnings' has the same meaning as in the regulation 1.03 of the Migration Regulations, which provides that earnings has a meaning affected by regulation 2.57A of the Migration Regulations, except that it also includes:

1. Guaranteed overtime where:
 - The guaranteed overtime is consistent with standard industry practice within the sector;
 - There are equivalent Australians performing equivalent work in the Third Party's workplace at the same location and whose arrangements have been guaranteed in an industrial arrangement for those workers; and

- At the time of nomination the Third Party provides evidence that the hours are guaranteed within the employment contract for the Overseas Worker, and confirms the hours are consistent with the National Employment Standards; and
- Application of the concession is subject to the Earnings being in line with applicable Industrial Awards or Enterprise Agreements and not below levels for Australian employees in comparable roles; and

2. Monetary and non-monetary benefits, where:

- The benefits support the living costs of the Overseas Worker;
- The Overseas Worker would have incurred that cost had it not been provided by the Third Party;
- The benefits are quantifiable;
- The benefits are consistent with the terms and conditions provided to existing Australians employed in a similar position;
- The benefits are guaranteed in the employment contract; and
- The benefits exclude contingent payments such as overtime (other than guaranteed overtime) bonuses and commissions.

For concession type 2, when calculating an Overseas Worker's Earnings, the value of other non-monetary earnings (such as phone, vehicle) cannot exceed 10% of TSMIT/CSIT.

CONCESSION TO ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

In this Schedule 7, IELTS means the International English Language Testing System or the equivalent in another accepted English language test.

Other accepted English language tests are:

- Occupational English Test (OET);
- Test of English as a Foreign Language internet-based test (TOEFL iBT);
- Pearson Test of English (PTE) Academic test; or
- Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) test.

The English language requirements may be met if a visa applicant would be regarded as an 'exempt applicant' for the purpose of the legislative instruments applicable to SID, SESR and ENS visas.

For any Occupations that are not listed in Table 6 or Table 6.1 below, the Overseas Worker is required to meet the minimum standard English language requirements applicable to the SID, SESR and ENS non-labour agreement visa streams under the Migration Regulations.

For the Occupations listed in Table 6 below, the following English language concessions apply:

- SID and SESR: average score of IELTS 5.0 with no minimum component score (unless registration or licensing requires a higher level of English).
- ENS: average score of IELTS 5.0 with no component being less than IELTS 4.0 or equivalent (unless registration or licensing requires a higher level of English).

For the Occupations listed in Table 6.1 below, the following English language concessions apply:

- SID, SESR and ENS: average score of IELTS 5.0 with no component being less than IELTS 4.0 or equivalent (unless registration or licensing requires a higher level of English).

PERMANENT RESIDENCE PATHWAY

A permanent residence pathway for Overseas Workers may be available through the Employer Nomination Scheme (ENS) Subclass 186 visa program for all occupations in Table 7 and 8 below.

The following conditions will ordinarily be included in a Labour Agreement and will apply to any nomination for an ENS visa (in addition to the ENS requirements outlined in the Migration Legislation).

- (a) Third Party's ENS nomination identifies an occupation in Table 7 that was the subject of the most recently approved TSS/SID visa for the Overseas Worker; and
- (b) The Overseas Worker has been employed in Australia, in the ENS nominated occupation, an occupation in the tables below, or a closely related occupation for a period of:
 - 1. At least two (2) years full-time before the ENS nomination is made; or
 - 2. Part-time work equivalent to at least two (2) years full-time before the ENS nomination is made.
- (c) For the whole time that the Overseas Worker was employed in accordance with paragraph (b) they must have:
 - 1. Lived and worked in the Designated Area outlined in Item 3 of Schedule 1 of this Agreement; and
 - 2. Complied with the conditions of the visa held.
- (d) The Overseas Worker identified in the ENS nomination will be employed on a full-time basis in the position for at least 2 years; and
- (e) The terms and conditions of employment of the Overseas Worker will not include an express exclusion of the possibility of extending the period of employment.
- (f) For Skill Level 5 occupations, the overseas worker must be promoted to, or gain employment in a higher skill level occupation for a period of no less than two years before the ENS nomination is made. The time spent in the earlier Skill Level 5 occupation will count towards the overall qualifying period for the permanent visa nomination in the occupations in Table 8.

Note: Workers unable to upgrade to a skill level 4 occupation will not have a pathway to permanent residence.

ANZSCO Code

An ANZSCO code is a six-digit numerical system used to classify and categorize occupations for statistical purposes and immigration purposes in Australia and New Zealand, each occupation having a unique code.

ANZSCO Skill Level

In ANZSCO (Australian and New Zealand Standard Classification of Occupations), skill level reflects the range and complexity of tasks within an occupation, measured by formal education, training, experience, and on-the-job training.

How to Apply Under A DAMA?

The DAMA is an employer-sponsored visa program and individual workers cannot apply independently. Employers must apply to the Designated Area Representative (DAR) to access the DAMA for the occupations, concessions and number of workers they require.

Generally, the application process consists of:

Step 1. The employer (sponsoring business) applies to the relevant DAR for endorsement.

Step 2. The DAR assesses the endorsement application.

Step 3. If the assessment is positive the DAR issues a letter of endorsement to the employer and notifies the Department.

Step 4. The sponsoring business makes an application to enter into an individual DAMA labour agreement with the Department. Step 5. The Department assesses the DAMA application.

Step 6. Once a positive outcome is received from the Department, the employer can proceed to lodge a nomination for the employee and the employee can also lodge a visa application under the labour agreement stream with the Department
